MARKET OUTLOOK

Today sugar worked downside during the most part of the day but with no significant changes until the settlement time when the losses became more expressive and kept that way to the closure. From fundamentals news the market had a low contribution. FCStone announced that they are forecasting a 40% raise for this year's production. Most of the traders think the deficit problem has already been solved, because otherwise they should have been back on the buying's. the macro scenario isn't too optimistic as well, with dollar index recovering +0,52%, leaving a negative felling for commodities coffee -0,98% on May contract. The raw settled 28 points under, while the white lost -$0,30, both on May contract as well.
