MARKET OUTLOOK

Sugar reached a 76 days high supported by a strong demand , however the supply mostly Brazilian keeps away from the selling expecting better prices. Still the October didn't broke the main resistance in the uptrend channel settling above 17,20. Besides the port situation is chaotic with a significant volume of vessels in demurrage with difficult on loading. The macro scenario is out of the monotony and crude and financial market works positive. The dollar index works negative -0,21% making the environment more positive for commodities in general. Raw settled 37 points above and refined +$9,80, both in October contract.
